In 1982 Peter bought and began to run Paul's Fine Foods. Shortly after this, they rebranded the company into Peter and Paul's. Peter and Anna ran the restaurant and offered clientele off-site catering. Spotting the gap in the market, they began selling gift baskets for the holidays as well. The business grew to include 2 new companies under the Peter and Paul's name - Peter and Paul's Baskets and Peter and Paul's Catering.

Founded in 1982, Peter and Paul's Gifts was the first to branch-out of what was then, Peter and Paul's Restaurant. What started as casual requests from customers to package boxes of chocolate and cookies grew to the setup of a small area in the restaurant. Since its founding, owner and gift expert Anna Eliopoulos, has brought excitement and passion to the gift giving market by understanding the dynamic needs of the market.

In 1997 Peter opened his first venue - The Manor Event Venue. Situated on the stunning greens and fairways of the Carrying Place Golf & Country Club, The Manor stretches out over 33,000 sq. ft. of flexible indoor and outdoor function space. This facility offers 3 extraordinary banquet halls, which can accommodate up to 900 guests and includes a large walk out patio that leads to a 6-acre man-made pond, a serene waterfall area, rolling hills, and a picturesque gazebo.

'98

In 1998 the company grew to include an exclusive agency - Search Engine, which later rebranded to become Engine 8 Media. Engine 8 Media is a full service creative multimedia company whose main mission is to create engaging and professional promotional and marketing material for the needs of both corporate and social clients.

Our latest venue to the Peter & Pauls family is Eaton Hall Country Inn & Spa. Located on the grounds of Seneca's King Campus at the corner of Dufferin St. and 15th Sideroad, the Norman-style chateau mansion, with its locally sourced Humber valley limestone, turrets and ironwork was once home to Lady Flora McCrea Eaton, of Canada's once prominent Eaton department store fame. Eaton Hall has been sympathetically renovated to appeal to the classical and vintage lover with a modern flair. Guests will instantly feel like royalty when they step under the porte cochère and into the Great hall.

In 2021 Peter & Pauls underwent a large rebranding. Over several months, Peter and the Peter & Pauls team went through a massive design and image change campaign. The campaign included rebranding the company and producing new corporate & social literature, advertising and media, website and promotional items. The result of this quest for constant improvement has involved relaunching and rebranding the company to Peter & Pauls Hospitality Group.
