

FOODSERVICE AND HOSPITALITY

Hotel X Toronto Partners with Bypeterandpauls.com for Foodservice Offerings

By Kostuch Media Ltd. - June 2, 2017

TORONTO — The Library Collection has announced byPeterandPauls.com — a Toronto-based entertainment and hospitality group — will be operating two restaurants, all event catering, room service and the Peregrine SkyBar at the 404-room Hotel X Toronto.

“At the Library Collection, we are known first and foremost for personalized service to our guests. We found that same dedication to flawless execution in byPeterandPauls.com,” says Henry Kallan, president, Hotel X Toronto. “This is an award-winning, Toronto-based company with a stellar reputation and years of experience. Most importantly, they understood our desire to create innovative stand-alone restaurants that will give the people of Toronto a new culinary destination right on our waterfront.”

Hotel X Toronto, which is set to open later this year, is set to be the city’s first urban resort. Located on the Exhibition Place grounds, the property will feature more than 26,000 sq. ft. of meeting space.

“We are excited to introduce our guests to a variety of different dining options at the property,” says Peter Eliopoulos, CEO of byPeterandPauls.com. “Maxx’s, our all-day dining room located on the south side of the building, will feature terraces with unobstructed views of the lake and an open-concept kitchen. Petros 82 will be a Mediterranean restaurant featuring fresh seafood and natural ingredients. As a Canadian of Greek heritage, it will be a particular pleasure to bring fine Greek dining to this city.”

The Peregrine SkyBar is expected to become a “must-see” destination, offering a 30th-floor view of Lake Ontario and the cityscape of Toronto. “Peregrine SkyBar will have specialty cocktails created by our mixologist. The atmosphere will be vibrant, urban and lively – just like Toronto,” says Eliopoulos.