Peter Eliopoulos

THE DRIVING FORCE BEHIND IT ALL IS PETER ELIOPOULOS

Peter Eliopoulos is the founder and CEO of North America's leading Hospitality empire, Peter and Pauls Hospitality Group. Since 1982, Peter has been an instrumental part in developing and bringing unique and state-of-the-art event venues, restaurants, event décor, audio/visual and top-notch catering with international brand recognition to the forefronts of Toronto and its surrounding areas.

Peter's Greek influence on celebration shows through the love and flair he brings to food, drink and entertainment. Peter thrived off of the fast-paced environment that came with the restaurant industry and grew up in the business. Peter merged his love of entertainment and hospitality with his entrepreneurial spirit and made an investment in his family's future, purchasing Paul's Fine Foods. It was not long after that, Peter expanded the business to offer clientele off-site catering, gift baskets and, as always, outstanding customer service. It was the momentum that drove the business to eventually grow into the Peter and Pauls group of companies.
