

OUR STORY

byPeterandPauls.com has been a leader and innovator in the hospitality and entertainment industry for more than 37 years

THE DRIVING FORCE BEHIND IT ALL IS PETER ELIOPOULOS.

Born in Potamia, Sparti, Greece, Peter Eliopoulos immigrated to Canada in 1967 with his parents and younger sister. They moved into a humble home in Toronto with his two uncles where quarters were never too close because spending time together with family was always something that he valued. His first taste of entrepreneurship began shortly after arriving in Canada, when he took on his first paper route at 12 years old. Putting 100% effort into everything he did, Peter would go above and beyond – wowing his customers by providing an exceptional client experience.

Peter's Greek influence on celebration shows through the love and flair he brings to food, drink, and entertainment. Peter thrived off of the fast-paced environment that came with the restaurant industry and grew up in the business. Working along side his uncles throughout much of his early life in their family restaurant.

When Peter met his wife, Anna, they instantly became the best partners in life, love and business. Together they formed the foundation upon which, byPeterandPauls.com was built. Wanting to start a family and build a life together, Peter merged his love of entertainment and hospitality with his entrepreneurial spirit and made an investment in his family's future. Peter purchased Paul's Fine Foods and it was not long after this that he and his wife had three daughters. Katherine, Angela and Nicole have always been involved in the business, playing a key role in helping the company operate successfully on a day-to-day basis. The girls went on to marry and now have 6 beautiful children between them.

Fuelled by passion, and a vision to grow, Peter and Anna expanded the business to offer their clientele off-site catering, gift baskets and as always, outstanding customer service. It was this momentum that drove the business to eventually grow into the Peter and Paul's group of companies.

"It has been an incredible ride," says Peter Eliopoulos, "byPeterandPauls.com has grown beyond my wildest dreams!"
