

David Duncan House Re-Opening Hosts Toronto Politicians

On June 13th, 2018 David Duncan House celebrated the re-opening of it's doors to showcase the newly renovated restaurant. Councillor Thompson, Chair of Economic Development and Culture, shared several remarks from the City of Toronto and presented CEO Peter Eliopolous and partners of David Duncan House with the official scoll.

TORONTO, ON – June 14th, 2018 – With over 300 people in attendance David Duncan House Toronto celebrated the re-opening with an outdoor/indoor celebration. Treating guests to menu highlights including a live raw bar, charcuterie and traditional favourites like cherries jubilee, and table-side caesar salads, a Duncan House tradition. Guests reviews of the new space include appreciation for the combination of old and new design, preserving the integrity of the original home and Gothic Victorian design while also offering a modern approach to hospitality.

"It's really a place that creates sense of togetherness, a sense of community and I know that byPeterandPauls.com, an organization that has had a tremendous impact on hospitality not just in Toronto but in the GTA as a whole coming here, we know now, that the history and tradition of the David Duncan House will be maintained and the quality of the food and the experience people will have here will be something that will rekindle and re-live the experiences that people have been having in the this community, but at a top level in respect to the quality that byPeterandPauls.com will bring to the community. " - Councillor Thompson

Special Guests Included:

- The Honourable Michael Tibollo
- Councillors Maria Augimeri
- Councillor David Shiner

About David Duncan House

Originally built in 1865 on 200 acres of land, David Duncan House remains a vibrant part of the community on its prominent site overlooking Don Mills Road. David Duncan quickly became one of the most respected and prize-winning dairy cattle farmer in all of Ontario. After the passing of David Duncan, his son Gordon and wife Kate, the house was abandoned for nearly 15 years before the Tzioumis brothers embarked on a two-year restoration project. The project included a one-quarter turn to orient the façade to Don Mills road and the restoration of the extensive bargeboard, to reflect the historical homes original characteristics.
